

Pasco Riverview Seventh-day Adventist Church

Pasco Riverview Church Members Serving in Other Service-Focused Organizations

Voted by

Church Board on January 22, 2018

The global Seventh-day Adventist Church seeks to advance the spiritual, intellectual, physical and social life of people everywhere. In support of this mission, the Pasco Riverview Seventh-day Adventist Church (Church) encourages its members to engage in various community service endeavors whether or not these are directly sponsored and/or operated by the Church. Members of the Church, including those elected to leadership in the Church, serving in community service projects or organizations not directly sponsored/operated by the Church do so in their personal and private capacity. Unless specifically authorized by Church Board or Church Business Meeting action the service of Church members, including elected leaders, in other community service projects or organizations shall not represent official Church endorsement of, or partnership with, the project/organization concerned.